MONDAY -- THE WORLD'S HALF-RATE SITUATION DAYS -- SATURDAY.

PRICE ONE CENT

Byrnes's Men Have a Mysterious Prisoner at Oak Street Station.

Police Deny that There are Blood Stains on His Clothing.

Theory That Carrie Brown's Murderer Was a Sailor.

The Mutilated Body Started for Potter's Field but Brought Back Until To-Morrow.

The Oak street station is still the base o sperations from which the search for the fiend who butchered old Carrie Brown, allas East River Hotel last Thursday night is being took place and plans were arranged for the day's operations. Within ten minutes after his coming a halfdozen of Inspector Byrnes's men came along, and were admitted to the secret chamber.

These conferences are always conducted with the utmost secrecy and mystery, and, those who are present are dumb to reporters when they emerge from the council chamber, Those who are familiar with the jovial manner of Capt. McLaughlin under ordinary circomstances are impressed with the anxious and careworn look which he has worn for the

He seems to be despondent and depressed and it is evident that the sense of his responsibility in the ferreting out of the "Shakes pears" trapedy is welgoing neavity upon

Apparently all the cines which have been followed up so industriously during the past five days by his detectives have ended in the most unsatisfactory results, and the general op men seems to be strengthening that the police are an far an ever from the solution of datement made by Inspector Byrnes las S turday night, was confidently believed to be the murderet, has dropped out of sight.

The Inspector now denies that he said that n ysterious cousin of Franchy No. 1 was entrance." the murderer, and it is atrongly suspected that olice have declind to drop that cine.

At any rate he has not been taken into cus ulthough everybody in the neighborhoo of Water street and Cherry Hill seems to have known him, and enough information has been furnished to the department about him to have car tured him a dezen times.

Just what clues the Cnief Inspector is workin, on now cannot be ascertained, for he to more mysterious and incomprehensible than the murder itself.

BEARCHING STEAMSHIPA It is said, however, that much of the labor Hill. of the detectives during the past twen y- our hazarded that the Inspector expects to find the | was torn and dirty. sesses among some of the Italian crews of

BA favorite nolles theory is that the murders was a sallor, and that after escaping from the hotel Friday morning he went on board ship. The broken table-guife which was used by the murderer has been inspected and closely examined by experts, and from its make and general appearance it is thought that it must

There were several new faces among the been on the case since the day of the murder. and who, it is said, are becoming too well known o the denizens of South street in the violatty of the dives and low resorts.

Still there were many of the old crowd on duty, among them being Detective Sergeants Dolan, Von Gerichten, Crowley, McCloskey, Hulbolland, Frink, Byanhoe and NeNaught. They spent the morning scouring the streets along the river front in the Fourth Precinct and are med to be looking for some one. Shortly after 16 o'clock Capt. O'Connor in around the precinct himself. He visited the East Hiver Hotel and stood at the corner of Catharine slip and South atreet watching the passing crowds for at least five minutes.

ROOM SI SHALED UP. Room No. 31 in the East River tiotel, where the foul crime was committed, has been lecked up by order of the police, and no one can visit it without obtaining a permit from Capt. O'Connor. The room has not been cleaned since the murder, and the dark blood stains on the floor un or the rickety old bedstead are still plainly een. The blood-stained bed clothing is rolle up in a bundle and neaped in the corner of the wretched little room-Proprietor Jennings says that hundreds of people have come there out of surjointy to see the place, and that he could make more money by throwing the room open to exhibition and tharging a small admission fee than renting it by a reporter, expressed great indignation at the Brooklyn police in thinking that the New York police should have gone further with their investigation. heats made in his official account of the case last Saturday night.

We are doing all that possibly can be done to clear up this case, but more than that I Cannon say, "

ANOTHER ARREST. A few minutes before it o'clock an incident becarred at the Oak street station which was followed by certain mysterious movements on

He was taxen back into the prison in the rear and locked up in a cell. As soon as he had been locked up, Capt. McLaughlin wen; back and spent about half an hour in the prison with the man who had just been arrested.

When he came out Capt. O'Cannor, who had previously allowed reporters the privileges of the officers' room in the rear, requested them all to leave the station, as he would need the som all the rest of the day.

He apologized for turning the newspaper men out into the street, but said it was absointely necessary. He declined to say whether the arrest had been made in connection with the "Shakespeare" murder, and declared that there was nothing new to give out in regard to the matter as yet.

TO BURY CARRIE BROWN TO-NORBOW. The body of old Carrie Brown, alias "Shakepeare," the victim of the East River Hotel tragedy, was to be sent to Hart's Island for urial in Potters' field to-day.

The box containing the body was placed on the little steamboat which leaves the Morgue for Hart's Island every morning, along with a lozen others watch were being removed from he Morgue for pauper burial.

Warden Fallon, however, decided that it would be best to keep the body at the Morgue for twenty-four hours longer, in case any of the relatives of the dead woman should come to town and desire to give it a decent burial, so the box was carried back to the dead room, where it will remain until to-morrow morning. to-day the body will be sent to Potters' Field.

A BARGE OFFICE CLUE. Shortly before 12 o'clock Capt. Whalen, exuperintendent of Me Barge Office, entered the "Shakespeare," alias "-Jeff Davis," in the Oak street station and was closeted with Capt, as hour earlier than usual this morning, and was shown in to Capt. O'Connor's private from, when the usual preliminary consults of the station and around to be seen that the station are station and around to be seen that the station and around the station are stat Both hurried up the stairs of the L station and took a train for South Ferry. Neither Capt. Whalen nor Detective Mc. Closkey would say anything to reporters about the nature of the former's visit.

AN IMPORTANT PRISONER. Shortly after noon there were signs of more mysterious activity at the Oak street station. Two young women who have already figured in this case, and who are well known among the water street resorts, came to the station to gether and were admitted to the private room

They remained in the station about half an our, when they reappeared and sauntered off n the direction of Cherry Hill. They have visited the station on several prework on the case, and were there late last They came to-day alone and went away without an escort. Their names are Jenny Lynch and Mary Cody. Mary is a short, blacksaired girl, and Jennie is a tall blonds, and both of them are comparatively young, al-though they show the results of the dissolute ife which they lead. They both refused to say for what purpose hey had visited the police, and when they lest the station they went directly to the East River River Hotel and disappeared at the "Tamily

Just before they came out Proprietor James Jennings, of the East River Rotel, called at the Oak street station and remained inside about ten minutes.

He also refused to say for what purpose I had been summoned or whether or not any new clues had been discovered.

CAN THEY IDENTIFY HIM? It is believed that he has been assisting the olice in the case, for he has spent most of the time for the past two days in skirmishing around the precinct and baunting the various dives and resorts in the neighborhood of Cherry of the detectives during the past twen y-our bours has been expended in searching ruit at 12.45 with an old woman, whom he had arrested down in Oliver street. She had her bouth agreet water front, and the conjecture is head covered with an old shawi and her dress tion, 45; Ward Detective Griffith came to the station

Capt. O'Connor, when asked if these people brought to the station to assist in the said that he was not at liberty to talk about the

It was rumored about the precinct that a man had been arrested early this morning, and had been looked up in a cell ever since daybreak.

WAS THERE BLOOD ON HIS CLOTHING? It was said that he had been brought in by Central Office detective, and that his appear station in Oak street this morning. They are ance answered fairly well to the description to take the places of some of the men who have given by Mary Miniter of the supposed murterer of old "Stakespeare."

Ac ording to the current rumor pleed stains marks were found upon his hands and on his Capt. O'Connor, when asked if this report was true, denied it with const lerable emphasia.

CARRIE DRISCOLL COMMITTED. Central Office Detective McCloskey to-day got Coroner Schultz to commit Mary Driscoe, of 12 Roosevelt street, to the House of Deleu tion. He stated that she was an important witgess in the case. BROOKLYN POLICE FIND PARLY. It is evident that the Brooklyn police are disensted with the action of the New York au. horities because of their failure to send Mary

Miniter over to Brooklyn yesterday afternoon to see the man who was held on the suspicion that he was the "Frencay" whom the police

Capt. Eason's men got on his track several days ago and have been searching night and day ever stuce to find him. After the arrest resterday the New York authorities were notified, and along toward night one of Byrnes's ictedtives saubtered into Headquarters, and upon seeing the man shook his head and said e was not the man wanted.

The fact that the man had been missing several days, taken into connection with the facts that he occurred on the night of the muider a room in a hotel next door to the East River Hotel, and that he admitted having been mixed up in the Slocum murger, warrant an Uncomfortable Mistake.

FIRED ON AN AMERICAN SHIP.

IDUNIAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL. SAN FRANCISCO, April 28. -- The American schooner Fred E. Londer, arriving here from the part of the police authorities in charge. A Taital, Chill, reports having been fired on by a han was brought in by one of the Central Chilian shore battery, she being mistaken for Unice detectives, who was closely followed by a rebel boat, when entering the port at Taltai, Detective Sergeaute Prink and O'Connot.

The man was about ave feet four, and a red not damaged.

penings About Town.

Chronicles Briefly Drawn from Note

Italys' Convicts Can't Enter. Guiseppe Mascarelli, a young Italian immigrant, was detained to-day on an accusation made by Cipuone Marchese, another italian, that Mascarelli had stabbed him in Italy, and was an ex-convict.

l o'clock this morning, burned up through the floor to Antoulo Russo's liquor store and caused a damage of $550. Grip's Death Rate Decreasing. The Bureau of Vital Statistics reports 150

Capt. Twomey Convalescent. Capt. Francis J. Twomey, the veteran Clerk of the Board of Aldermen, who has

The Body Was Patrick E. Ward's The body of the man found drowned at the foot of Vesey street. April 12, was iden tified at the Morgue to-day as that of Pat-rick E. Ward, of No. 382 Greenwich street, who disappeared April 10. Discussing Railway Mail Service. A convention of prominent officials of the rallway mail service was held to-day in room Columbia Libelled for $15,000. Charles H. Byer and others, owners of the lighter Nestor, to-day filed in the United State District Court, a libel for $15, 200 damage against the steam elevator Columbia, which sums the Nestor in collision April 23.

Distinguished Voyagers on the Spree On the North German Lloyd steamship Spree rious occasions with the detectives who are at which sailed to-day, were Jesse L. Seligman the banker; Baron and Baroness Koppman Mr. A. J. Drexet and Col. and Mr. M. E. Hecht.

> Harris's Examination Adjourned. The examination of John Harris, januar of the Astor Fist, in West One Hundred and Iwenty-eighth street, who is charged with the Harlem Police Court, adjourned until to Site for a Cox Statue Alderman Harris, at to-day's meeting the Board of Aldermen, introduced a reso-lution recuesting the Park Board to name a site in one of city's parks for the erection of the statue of the late Congressman S. S. Cox.

Locked Up for Burglary. Burglary and the larceny of $70 worth o clothes was the charge preferred against Robert Daie at Essex Market to day by John Cahill, of No. 50 Jackson street. Gale wa held for trial.

Less Grip in Brooklyn. "Grip" is losing its hold in Brooklyn, as shown by the report issued this morning. There have been 577 deaths during the past Ninety Years Old and Lost. Thomas Stewart, a retired baker, ninety identification of the prisoners who had been previously arrested, looked mysterious and Fulton avenue, Brooklyn, was committed at Jefferson Market this morning to await the arrival of friends. He was found wau-dering about in the vicinity of the Christo-pher street ferry last night and appeared to be lost.

Enjoined by Church Street Boot

The owners of the booths used for liquo saloons and a restaurant on the west side of Church street, between Cortlandt and Liberty streets, and which have been found to be built princibally upon the street, have obtained a temporary injunction restrain-ing Commissioner Gilroy from removing the encroaching structures.

Set a Train Bunning Away. Sentence was suspended in Justic O'Donnell's Jersey City Court sto-day in the Plynn and Peter Gorman, four lads who loosed the brakes on a train of cars standing on the Fennsylvania Italicod grade yesterday afternoon to steal a short ride. The cars got away and crashed into the depotimperilling many people.

Held for Stealing Music. Charles Kinegel, of 330 East Twenty-secand street, was held at Essex Market to-day charged with the theft of $100 worth of music plates from Julius E. Schott, a music publisher.

Mrs. Rohlfs Wants a Divorce. Mary A. Rohlfs to-day began suit i Brooklyn for a divorce from her husband. John H. Rohifs. She charges that her hus-band has, since Aug. 10, 1890, been living with Eva Rohifs at 210 Ten Eyck street, Brooklyn.

Smith, who died last Friday of tonsilitis in duced by grip, was held this morning from the Bedford Street Methodist Episcops Church. Many ministers were in attendance. The body was taken to Poughkeep-sie for bursal. Dr. Smith was nearly sex-enty-three years old, and was appointed a minister by the New York Conference in 1843. Church. Many ministers were in attend-

Accidentally Shot Himself. Thirteen-year-old Andrew Burns, of No.

His Wife's Eye Knocked Out. John Hanebury, of 1014 Tiffany Place.
Brookiyp, was arrested this morning charged with as-aulting his wife. He combinated because a med was not ready, and it is alleged that he knocked his wife's eye out with a chair. John Hanebury, of 1914 Tiffany Place.

To-Day's Record of Minor Hap- He Is Positive that Capt. Macken- Father Briedy Says He Intrusted It to zie Did Not Commit Suicide.

ing to Make an Autopsy.

for an explanation of his action in the per-formance of his duties as Coroner's physician, this time in the case of Capt. George Mackenzie, the famous chess-player. The latter died at the Cooper Union Hotel April 14, under suspicious circumstances. Dr. Conway, however, without holding an autopay, granted a burial permit in which the cause of death was given as "phthisis pulmoraris."

basement of 69 Mulberry street shortly before Capt. Mackenzie committed spicide by taking Dr. S. B. Minden, of 8 St. Mark's place, who attended Capt, Mackenzie, does not agree > his life insurance under his will. Three days before his death, Dr. Minden says, Capt. Mackenzie came to him and wished to have an injection of morphine. It was refused. The Captain then went to Dr. Mucilenbach, of No. 9 Bible House, who also declined to comply with his request. But he got, about April 6, a vial containing thirty-two doses of one-sixth of a grain of morphine each

Dr. Minden sald Capt. Mackenzie looked like a man who had died of morphine poisoning. He took charge of the bottle which contained the poison and reported the case at Coroner Messemer's house for investigation.

The body was removed to Kip's undertaking establishment, no autoney being made. Dr.

porter this morning, made this explanation:

torting this matter. I knew of the morphine vial, but could not find it. Dr. Minden had no business to take it away." "Would you have made an investigation in you had found it?" "No. Capt. Mackenzie was on his last legs with consumption, and persons suffering with a wasting disease like he naturally and of ne-

"If I had held an autopsy it might have shown the morphine, but in any case it would surder of his son, was, this morning, in not have amounted to more, under the circumstances, than a verdict of death from an own afternoon.

overdose of morphine.
"I don't know why the onus of suicide should rest on Capt. Mackenzie when there is nothing to sustain that theory. I was and am firmly convinced that Capt. Mackenzie's death was caused by consumption and nothing else.

cided, was beaten to death by her husband, who was held for murder, although Dr. Conway granted a certificate of death from natural funeral, and the woman was about to be con-signed to a grave, and thereby an alleged crime shielded, when the police heard of the matter and stopped the burial. ringer had several teeth kno out, one of her eyes was discolored and she Dr. Conway accepted the explanation of the husband that his wife was an habitual drunk-

The autopay showed that death was due to cerebral hemorrhage, caused by violence, an did not result from natural causes.

CHANGED THE MAYOR'S SLATE.

Another change in the state for municipal officials to be appointed by Mayor Grant has been made, and it is said it was wrought through the influence of ex-Senator George

John E. Kelly, ex-Clerk of the Eleventh Dis-trict Civil Court, is now said to be the coming case of Thomas and John Taggart, Daniel Dock Commissioner, and Biward P. Hagan. who was mentioned for the place, will be con-tent with the Tammany nomination for Sens-tor to succeed Senator Stadler in the Ninth

Ex-Benator Funkitt, who has been and is still one of the principal contractors in the Dock and Sirect Cleaning Department, is the Tammany leader in the Seventeenth District, where Mr. Kelly resides, and is bondsman for the retiring Commissioner, James Matthews.

A Pennsylvania Dairyman Is Driven

(SPECIAL TO THE EVERING WORLD.)
LANCASTER, April 28.—Rdward Goehkey. aged forty-five, a dairyman near this city, arose at 4 this morning, seized an axe and started for the woods with suicidal intent. My father leaped a fence, jumped into the Goshley's act. Dropped Dead While Asking for Work.

Thomas Tender. a laborer residing at 407

East Sixteenth atreet went into the building at 215 East Twenty-ninth street this morning to FIRED ON AN AMERICAN SHIP.

Thirteen-year-old Andrew Burns, of No. 100k for work. He had been there taking with 232 Mulberry street, accidentally shot him with a cry ne tell to the ground dead. 11 is self in the lead this morning while playing thought that scath was due to neart disease. We Have a Polish Fing. Count Peter Wodciki to-day presented the

a New York Policeman.

Tells a Strange Story in Court.

While the Police Court at Jofferson Market was in session this morning a man of abou forty-five years, wearing the garb of a pricat entered and asked to talk to the Justice. II said he was the Rev. Father Briody, from Minneapolis, Minn., and had arrived yester day in the city on his way to Europe.

Not feeling confidence in himself last night he met at Eleventh street and Sixth avenue $1,700 in cash and a check for $2,000 on the First National Bank of Minneapolis to mind of that for him until this morning.

The policewan failed to meet him, and he seked the Justice what he should do. Justice McMahon gave him in charge of Sergi. Coombs, and sent to the parsonage of St Joseph's Church, near by on Sixth avenue, for one of the priests. Father Morris returned with the messenger to the court room. Then he had a long private conversation with Father Briordy, after which he said the latter was a Catholic clergyman but not! in good standing.

He took him to St. Vincent Hospital. Before going Father Briody insisted on send ing a telegram to the Minneapolis Bank notify ing the directors not to pay any money on the $2,000 check and requesting them to forward him a oneck for $500.

An EVENING WORLD reporter who called a St. Vincent's Bospital was told that Father Briogy was in bed and in an excited condition The head Sister in charge said that Pather Briody was not a drinking man, but appeare to be anfiering from de unionary ma principal hallucination being that he has been

For further information the Sister referred he reporter to Father Morris, of St. Joseph's. Father Morris was not at the parsonage. The reporter saw Father Satter, pastor of St. Joseph's, but he declined to give any information as to Father Briody's charge,
'I think it best to keep such scandals out of the newspapers," said Father Salter. Sixth avenue, in the neighborhood of Elev anth street, is patrolled by police from both the Charles street and Mercer street stations. At the Mercer street station-house it was said that the officers on duty from that precinct at the time of the alleged robbery were Patrolman Wm. Gilmarcin, John McLaughlin, Wm. Donnigle and Peter Blanch.

From the Charles street station the officers on duty were Thomas F. Brennan, Michael Broderick, Michael Murphy and James F. Broderiox, michael murphy Pannas. All of them denied having seen the priest or having received any of his money. Capt. Brogan and Capt. Copeland think Father Briody has been imposed upon by a be-

RIOT IN THE TOMBS PEN. Two Female Prisoners Start a Battle Under the Court's Nose. While the prisoners in the pen at the Tombe Police Court this morning were waiting for Justice Taintor to arrive a great disturbance was heard among them. The cour the door was opened two of the female pri oners were found engaged in a fierce fight.

oners were found engaged in a nerce signt.

Nellie Griffin, of Oak street, had planted a blow on the face of Louisa Lyuch, of Elizabeth street, and was swying to get her hands in Louisa's hair, when the latter pleked up a soda-water bottle and struck the Oak street amazon in the mouth.

Two or three of the other prisoners then took a hand in the fight.

The window of the court-room door was smashed before. smashed before.

Roundsman Cambbell and half a dozen court officers quelled the disturbances.

Louisa Lynch was fined $10 for soliciting and got two mo: the on the Island for the fight. Nellic Griffin was sent to the Island for two months.

CARPENTERS WHO WON'T STRIKE Short Hours Granted by Pittsburg

Builders Dutside the Association. PITTEBUNG, April 22.—Over two thou arpenters about here will not strike on May 1. Many bosses outside of the Builders' Ass ion have agreed to the short-hour demand and expect to reap a rich barvest. Numbers of journeymen have completed as

The Quotations.

Amer. Sugar Ref.
Buf. Roch, & Pitts.
Buf. Roch, & Pitts.
Contral Pacific
Chesspeake & Otio
Chesgo Cus.

Chic. Nock is. $\text{Ass.}$ Chic. Kock is. $\text{Ass.}$ III.

Chic. & Kock is. $\text{Bss.}$ 280.

Chic. & Kock is. $\text{Chic.}$ 280.

Chic. & Chic. & Kock is. $\text{Chic.}$ 281.

Col. & Hock. Cosl.

Colorado Cosl. $\text{Airon}$

Consouthated tips.

Dat. Lack & West.

Dalaware & Hinden.

Danner & Hinden.

Danner & Hinden.

Dist. & Cattie Feed.

Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic.

Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic.

Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic.

Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic.

Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic. & Chic.

Chic. & C

orthern Pacific pret

A full account of Wall street affairs will be ound in THE EVENING WORLD'S 5 o'clock

tario A West

angements to start shops of their own. A Live Wire the Supposed Cause

The C. L. A. S. Exhibition test entertainment to be given by the Cathedral Literary and Athletic Society, at the Berkeley Gymnasium. 19 West Forty-fourth street. The entries for some of the events are very large and it he expected that a splendid time will be had. Paid His Rent With Blows. Rudolph Bohan, of No. 206 Henry street, was held for trial to-day at Essex Market for assaulting his landlord. Chief of Police Joseph P. Smith of Flushing, who called for his rent yesterday. Smith is seventythree years old: and was badly beaten.

Piquet May Go Up for Life.

Rugene Piquet, the former cashier of the Eugene Piquet, the former cashier of the Port.

but her people were saved.

Fire Still Raging in the Pines. Jersey pines, and much valuable timber and woodland is being destroyed. The loss will be heavy.

HIS TURN.

SIX PAGES.

VIGILANCIA A PLAGUE SRIP. A BATTLE WITH STRIKERS.

Small-Pox on the Alva.

The steamship Vigilancia, of the United States and Brazil steamship line, which arrived at this port this morning from Hio de Janeiro, was detained at Quarantine by the bealth officers, a case of yellow fever on board. She has sixty-six passengers.

ancia and to permit no commutation with the shore except through the health officers. Yellow fever has been known to be epidemi at Rio for several weeks, and two other steamships recently arrived from that port have been found to have cases of the disease on board darshall Richard M. Lush, the Republican eader in the Sixteenth Assembly District.

gan gation this disquables Luah from further empership in the Republican County Executive Committee.

LINEMAN DEVINE KILLED.

His Awful Fall. While repairing wires on a telegraph pole morning, John Devine, thirty years old, a Metropolitan Telephone Company lineman, fell from the top of a pole and was instantly killed. A very large growd is expected to be present this evening at the exhibition and open con-

Rudolph Bohan, of No. 206 Henry street,

Eugene Piquet, the former cashier of the Lancashire Insurance Company, pleaded guilty in Part I. of the Court of General Seasons t day to fourteen indictments, charging him with grand isrceny, and was remanded until Friday for sentence. He may be sent to State prison for the remander of his life.

Shipwrecked Sailors Brought to The steamship Delavan, arrived to-day from Cape Hayti, brought to New York the crew of the schooler Marion Monson, of Bath. Me., which was wrecked April 10 on Little Magua,

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,)
MAY'S LANDING, N. J. April 28. - The big forest fire is still raging among the East

Fishermen, Take Notice. It will be high water to-morrow, April 29. at Sandy Heat at 11.31 A. M., at Governor's In a st at 11.49 A. M. and at Heil Gate at 1.5

one of the most popular men in Brooklys, and because of his untsinted political record was

Dr. Kreizschmar died at his nome, 400 Wash. ngton avenue, at 11,50 o'clock last night. His death was the outcome of "grip," with which he was attacked about three weeks ago. He was a close friend of the late ex-Senston

Dr. Kretzschmar was out attending to his busine-s on Friday, but Saturday morning he complained of being ill and went to bed. Bunday he was very sick, and Dr. Gihon, the United States naval surgeon, Dr. Hopkins, Dr. Wm. H. Kretzschmar and a physician from this city were called in consultation The patient grew worse, and yesterday morning he told his clerk, William L. Howard, that he know he was going to die. Being a physician I know my condition but I don't want you to tell my family. I hate "I have tried to do my duty to everybody.

and I am giad to know that I have made friends in and for the Board of Supervisors." At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Dr. Kretzschmar's physicians held a consultation with Dr. Jacoby. The patient seemed to be strong, and his voice was clear. He remained quies until precial to the evening world. It was seized with a convuision, and died ten minutes later. His wife and drother were at his beddie.

Dr. Kreizschmar was born in Dresden about forty-four years ago, and was concerted at the Academy of the Holy Cross in that city. He strikers and a hundred policemen. Shots were freely exchanged, and Charles K. Enits, a striker, was mortally wounded.

The Mayor has issued a proclamation calling upon a regiment of militis in the eity to be ready for duty at a moment's notice. The armories are under military protection.

FITZSIMMONS IN CHICAGO.

alips recently arrived from that port have been a found to have cases of the disease on board and have been subjected to rigid quarantine.

It was reported this morning from Quarantine that more small-pox had broken out on W. K. Vanderbilt's steam yach Alva, which has been anchored down the bay since her arrival last week from the Mediterranean.

Another of the crew was found to have come down with the disease and he has been removed to North Breithers Island.

FIRST OF NEW CITY MARSHALS,

Mayor -Grant Began Bis Appointment of Coff and the complete the state of the crew was blood on the big Ansimal ment of Coff and the complete the state of the crew was blood on the big Ansimal ment of Coff and the complete the complete the state of the crew of the round tamely. Fits at first fideled and the appointment of Coff and the complete the comple officers of the Spanish corvette Race-Track "Commission Dealers" to Nautilus which is on its way from Havana to this port, and is expected Confer Before Resuming Rusinger

Through published statements the impression was general this morning in sporting circles that the pool-rooms, which have been closed for the past two weeks, would all open o-day under the advice of Howe & Hummel, that they bould execute commissions for ttors and place at the race track all wagers made in the city pool-rooms.

The regulations of the Ives' Pool law make t permissible for any person to bet at the racks where the racing extends from the Spring until the Autumn. Howe & Hummel can find nothing in this law to prevent the city commission mercaants " from doing all the lightest indication that any business was in progress. Peter Delacey said he was sure nothing bands would open up again. except the janitor in either place.

Lawyer Abe Hummel told the reporter that it had been finally decided not to do any commission business to-day, but that at a meeting of the Bookmakers' Association to-morrow th exact date of their re-entry into business would be decided upon. There are some who say that Thursday next will see the "commission dealers once again marking up the old familiar odds." Many Seriously Consider Annex-

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLS. I

LONDON, April 18, 11 is alleged that Sir William Whiteway, the Newfoundland premier, has openly declared that if all things fail land the departation from that colony will re-ace and a scrubby dark mustache, and were a CITY NEWS TERSELY TOLD, DR. CONWAY AGAIN EXPLAINS. PRIEST ROBBED OF $3,700.

Book and Docket.

Shot a Mad Dog. Policeman Terhune, this morning shot and killed a mad dog at $36 East One Hundred and Eighth street.

Fire Among the Spirits. A fire in Frank Gulato's, grocery store in th deaths in this city in the swenty-four hours ending at noon to-day. Of these nine were from grip-complications. The police sick list contains 122 names.

been confined to his residence with rhen-matism, returned to his desk at the City Hall to-day after a three weeks' absence.

38 of the Post-office building, to discuss mat-ters affecting the consudt of the service. It was called by Sapt. H. C. Jackson.

tion, 46.

Owners.

Funeral of Rev. Dr. William C. Smith. The funeral of Rev. Dr. William C.

with a loaded revolver. He received a scalp wound which was attended to by the family

Says Ho Was Not Negligent in Fall- His Reverence from Minneapolis

Dr. William A. Conway is again called upon of some of which, it is alleged, Dr. Conway had knowledge, and which led to the bell with Dr. Conway's conclusion, and has refused to grant a certificate of death to Capt. Mackenzie's beneficiaries, who want to collect which was redlied on April 13, the day before his death, at Dr. Muellenbach's drug store.

tion, and next day issued a certificate of death Dr. Conway, when seen at his residence, 153 East Broadway, by an EVENING WORLD re-"Capt. Mackensie died of just what I said he did. I don't know why Dr. Minden is dis-cessity so take large quantities of morphine. They take it as a atimulant. It keeps them

Two days after Capt. Macaengie's death Dr. Conway was called to view the body of Mrs. Catharine C. Derringer, wife of a journeyman butcher, at 211 West Thirty-first street, who, Coroner Levy de-

All preparations had been made for the ard and granted the certificate of death, it i alleged, without any other inquiry as to the cause of the injurie to Suicide.

John E. Kelly Said to Be the Coming Dock Commissioner.

Canestoga river with his axe, drawned. The son followed and had to be pulled out. A daughter's shame caused ity, through Mayor Grant, with a flag of the Polish Republic, which will be displayed

More Yellow Jack from Rio, More Detroit Police and Railroad Men

Orders were at once given to detain the Vign

Exchange Shots Freely.

turbance was heard among them. The court officers rushed to the pen, and when the FIRST OF NEW CITY MARSHALS, played his man into confidence. At the end

The Aldermen Will Extend Hospitality to the Visiting Nautijus. The Board of Aldermen, on motion o Iderman Mead, to-day passed a resolution xtending the hospitality of the city to the o suchor in the harbor sometime to anchor in the week. The Board also directed the Spanish flag to be displayed on the City Hall on the arrival of the ship. A reception will be tendered the officers of the Corvette by the Spanish residents of the city probably at the Metropolitan Operation. iouse. The Nantilus is the school-ship of the THEY MUST PAY THE PRICE.

Otherwise There May Be a Pier Instead of a Ferry at Forty-second

Street.

The Sinking Fund Commissioners to-day secided to fix the upset price of the ferry business they want at the old stands and in ranchise, to be sold to-morrow, for the manner not a great deal changed from the ferry from Forty-second street to the West old way. Shere Railroad Depot at #8,000 for three Pacific Tea Company's Fire. The buildings 146, 148 and 150 Grand avenue Brooklyn, which caught fire last avenue Brookly, which caught he last night, are in rui, s to-day. The Pacific less Company reports a loss of $7,000. Five horses were rescued from their blazing stalls. The Uni in Elevated Railroad struc-ture was damaged.

The strike among London cabmen is extend-ing and will probably lead to a complete re-organization of the cab trade in the English metropolis. Choked to Death With a Piece of Tripe.

Condensed Cablegrams

Induenza has attacked the English soldiers

Charles Emory Smith, American Minister to

itte ia, is on his way home on leave of ab

John Derking, of No. 440 Baltic street, throat and he was choked to keato. Physicians Recommend for Made by

DEATH OF DR. KRETZSCHMAR. Grip Claims One of Brooklyn's Most

PRICE ONE CENT.

Eminent and Best-Loyed Citizens.

High in His Profession and Holding Many Offices of Trust and Honor. Brooklyn's leading citizens and politicians were shocked this morning when they learned of the death of Dr. Paul 11. Kretnechmar, Supervisor-at-Large of Kings County. who was looked upon as the probable nomines for the Mayoralty, to succeed Mayor Chapin.

William H. Murths, who died about ten days to go away, " said the dying man, "My famity ties are sweet; I am wedded to my profession, and my political associations are good and friendly.

11.40, when he turned over in bed, and said: "I don't feel good." He was seized with a

NO POOL-ROOMS OPEN TO-DAY.

But in an hour's tour this morning of such well-known places as Delacey's, 33 Park Row; Mahoney's, next door to the corner of Centre and Chambers streets; Loveli's, 9 Barclay street, and Ridge Levien's, 3 Barciay street, an Evening World reporter found not the

would be done to-day, but that eventually all At the other resorts everything was covered thickly with dust, and not a person was seen

Brooklyn. was eating breakfast this morning mier, has openly declared that if all this in when a piece of tripe got caught in his in the attempt to secure justice for New turn bome and seriously computer union the United States.

ANOTHER ARREST.